

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Media Contact:

Lauren Olsen
Telework Exchange, LLC
(703) 883-9000 ext. 118
lolsen@teleworkexchange.com

3rd Annual Telework Exchange Tele-Vision Awards Open for Nominations

Tele-Vision Awards Recognize Excellence in Government Telework

ALEXANDRIA, Va., December 3, 2007 – Telework ExchangeSM, a public-private partnership focused on eliminating telework gridlock, today issued the 3rd Annual Tele-Vision Awards call for nominations. The Telework Exchange Tele-Vision Awards program recognizes excellence in government telework programs, including agency accomplishments and individual contributions to telework success. The official nomination forms are available at www.teleworkexchange.com/awards-2008.asp. Nominations are due by Tuesday, February 5, 2008 at 5:00 p.m. EST.

The awards program recognizes programs and individuals in the following categories:

- Excellence in Telework Leadership (Program)
- Innovative Application of Technology to Support Telework (Program)
- Best New Telework Initiative (Program Implemented or Significantly Expanded During the Last 12 Months)
- Telework Program with Maximum Impact on Government
- State and Local Government Telework Program
- Telework Driver Award (Individual)

The Telework Exchange Tele-Vision Awards program recognizes Federal, state, and local government programs that exhibit active participation from multiple stakeholders, support strategic government agency objectives, leverage industry best practices, and demonstrate a sound, sustainable approach to teleworking. The awards program also honors government individuals that exhibit strong leadership and a collaborative approach, going “above and beyond” daily responsibilities to make a difference in telework. An independent panel of judges, composed of professionals from government and affiliate organizations with experience in managing, implementing, funding, and maintaining telework programs for public-sector organizations, will evaluate the Telework Exchange Tele-Vision Award nominations.

-more-

“Telework Exchange is pleased to announce the call for nominations for the annual Tele-Vision Awards program,” said Stephen W.T. O’Keeffe, executive director, Telework Exchange. “For the third consecutive year, we aim to highlight the best practices in the government and recognize individuals and agencies that are committed to expanding telework in the Federal government. We look forward to another successful program in 2008.”

Telework Exchange will present the 3rd Annual Tele-Vision Awards at a dessert reception on Tuesday, April 22, 2008 at the Telework Exchange Town Hall Meeting at the Ronald Reagan Building and International Trade Center in Washington, D.C. For more information or to sponsor this event, please visit www.teleworkexchange.com/awards-2008.asp.

About Telework Exchange, LLC

Telework Exchange is a public-private partnership focused on demonstrating the tangible value of telework and serving the emerging educational and communication requirements of the Federal teleworker community. The organization facilitates communication among Federal teleworkers, telework managers, and IT professionals. For more information on Telework Exchange, please visit www.teleworkexchange.com.