MISSION

The Federal Managers Association (FMA) advocates excellence in public service through effective management and professionalism, as well as the active representation of its members' interests and concerns.

MISSION

FMA advances its mission through consultation in the Executive Branch and advocacy in Congress, top-notch professional development programs, informative publications and networking opportunities for its members.

Since 1913, FMA has been a passionate advocate for excellence in federal public service through effective management, as well as a forceful champion of its members' legislative agenda.

SUCCESS

In 2009, FMA saw several of its top priorities signed into law, including:

- An unused sick leave credit for federal employees under the Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS) worth thousands of dollars per employee

PARTNERSHIP

FMA actively supports the work of the Telework Exchange and has partnered on several studies - including the recently released -

Unnecessary Barriers: A Report on Federal Employment of Americans with Disabilities
